

CWPT Library Services Presents

Training Time

Information Skills Training delivered remotely to suit your needs!
The following sessions are currently available:

- Finding Evidence

This session introduces the process of literature searching using the NHS Healthcare Advance Search method and covers tasks such as database selection and creating an effective search strategy. Locating quality evidence-based literature to support your patient care or research needs.

- A Brief Introduction to Critical Appraisal

Presenting an overview of the critical appraisal procedure, this brief workshop includes an introduction to the key study designs used within clinical research and how to appraise a paper.

- Surfing for Health

An introduction to online health information sources for personal health and wellbeing. Evaluating and navigating resources and locating quality patient focused health information.

All the above sessions are available either as a 1-2-1 or group Training delivered via Microsoft Teams, other options maybe available For further details and booking arrangements please contact:

Andrew.Hough@covwarkpt.nhs.uk - Tel: 02476 932450

Or email: Caludon.library@covwarkpt.nhs.uk